

SPEAKING

INTRODUCTION

The examiner will welcome you, introduce themselves, start recording the interview and ask for identification – the one you used to register for the IELTS.

What is your full name?

Part 1

Where do you live?

What do you like to do with your friends?

How often do you watch football games on tv?

Who do you watch games with?

Do you support a specific football club?

How long have you been supporting this team?

Do you like to play football?

What has been the best football game you have ever watched?

Part 2

Describe a football player that you admire.

You should say:

who this player is

why you chose this player

how this player influences the game and explain how you feel about them.

You have one to two minutes to talk about this topic. When you are given the card, you have one minute to make some notes on a piece of paper if needed.

Part 3

Why do you think football is the most popular sport in the world?

How has the sport changed over the last couple of decades?

How does club relegation affect the strength of a league?

Do you support FIFA as a governing body of football?

How can youth gambling on football games be prevented?

Should women be able to referee men's games, and vice versa?

Follow up Questions

Is this positive or negative?

Do you agree with this?

Can you elaborate?

Are there any more steps?