

SPEAKING

INTRODUCTION

The examiner will welcome you, introduce themselves, start recording the interview and ask for identification – the one you used to register for the IELTS.

What is your full name?

Part 1

What do you do for fun?

Who do you like to spend your time with?

How often do you play video games?

Where do you like to play video games?

When is the best time to enjoy a video game?

What is your favorite genre of game to play?

Have you ever bought a video game you didn't like?

If you could play one game again for the first time, what would it be? Why?

Part 2

Describe an enjoyable gaming experience you had.

You should say:

which game you played

how did the experience happen

what made the experience fun and explain why this experience is so memorable.

You have one to two minutes to talk about this topic. When you are given the card, you have one minute to make some notes on a piece of paper if needed.

Part 3

In what way can video games shape the youth of society?

Is it possible for video games to become addictive?

What advice can you give parents to remedy a child's addiction?

Do video games promote predatory gambling mechanics?

Should schools utilize gaming as a tool in education?

Are there any circumstances for socialization in games?

Follow up Questions

Is this positive or negative?

Can you elaborate?

Who should regulate these?